

I SHOULD

-Bharat Jain

I should draw my strength and Weakness,
Find a mentor with whom I can Express,

I should do my homework well in Advance,
If not then wait for markets to give another Chance,

I should follow my trading rules in any Case,
Also understand that market is a lifelong marathon and not a Race,

I should learn from my mistakes and trade well by holding my Nerve,
That will surely help me in reducing my learning Curve,

I should understand that losing money in markets is Harmful,
The crux of each trade is - Small is Beautiful,

I should trade more on set ups and less on Discretion,
The fact remains that Trading is the world's toughest Profession,

I should recognize that markets also follow the fundamental laws of Nature,
Know them and apply, it will surely raise my Stature,

I should be a good human being to have a successful trading Career,
Being Human is a virtue and not a Barrier,

I should know that for outsiders, markets are as sweet as Honey,
But my dear, one has to trade to make Money,

I should never give markets an half-hearted Try,
It's a sure shot recipe for making my bank account Dry,

I should ask "Am I working on borrowed conviction or on tips given by the Media?",
If yes, I will lose money even if I have read the market Encyclopedia,

I should register that nothing is gained out of Prediction,
I can make money only by trading on my Conviction,

I should wish everybody in our forum without Fail,
May every member always trade on the side of the fat Tail,

I should believe that "What we sow, so shall we Reap", InvesTrade has MILES TO GO, BEFORE IT can SLEEP.....
